

Jay Aaron – Bio

Soulful. Magnetic. Unapologetically real. Jay Aaron brings a fresh wave to R&B, fusing contemporary vibes, gospel roots, and raw urban soul into a sound that's as timeless as it is innovative. With storytelling that cuts deep...love, growth, resilience...his music is designed to move both hearts and bodies.

Born in Memphis with gospel in his blood, Jay grew from singing in his father's church to commanding stages across the country. Influenced by legends like Michael, Whitney, Al Green, and Stevie, he carved his own lane, first as a background vocalist and songwriter, then as a powerhouse solo artist.

A passionate performer and community voice, Jay has headlined the Memphis Juneteenth Festival, the Bushnell Performing Arts Center, and stages from Miami to L.A. His breakout single Blind and debut album Retention laid the foundation, while recent singles Diamonds and Right Here, Right Now showcase his evolution.

After overcoming personal battles and reinventing his sound, Jay Aaron is more than an artist—he's proof that focus, fire, and faith can turn struggle into unstoppable momentum. His upcoming LP Detox promises to be his boldest chapter yet.
